PERISHED IN FLAMES

EX-GOVERNOR ELIAS CONWAY OF ARKANSAS MEETS

Death Accidentally in His Room—The Old Gentleman Refused to Allow Any One to Sleep in His House—A Remarkable Career Ended.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 29.—A deplorable accident has occurred here. Ex-Gov.
 Elias Conway being burned to death in his home in Scott and Second streets.

Smoke was discovered issuing from the front room of the house shortly before the hour named and the fire department was called out. Those who entered the building found the interior of the apartment occupied by the governor in flames while Conway himself was found stretched on the floor, burned almost to a crisp.

The supposition is that he had got up from his bed and in moving around had overturned the lamp. His head was lying in the old fashioned fire place and the garments which yet remained on his charred body were thoroughly saturated with coal oil.

He led the life of a recluse and had lived entirely alone for several years.
 Elias Conway was one of the most noted characters in the state. He was born in Tennessee May 17, 1812, and came to Little Rock in 1833 and has since resided here. In 1834 he was territorial auditor and after admission of the state he was elected auditor and held the position for thirteen years. In 1852 he was elected governor on the Democratic ticket and re-elected in 1854. His administration was eminently successful and he retired from office leaving every department of the state in a flourishing condition and a larger accumulation of gold in the treasury than has been credited to the state before or since.

He never married. For many years his was a familiar figure on the streets, his old-fashioned garb attracting attention, but recently he has lived more and more secluded, rarely going out. His death is a tragic sequel to his brilliant public career.

They Pulled the Rope.

MANSFIELD, Mo., Feb. 29.—"Pull your d-d rope" was the sentence with which Dick Cullon requested the party of lynchers to accomplish the deed for which they took him out of jail. A secret meeting decided to lynch Cullon. At 10 o'clock 150 determined men halted on the west side of the square. A rope was produced and the men marched to the jail, where the sheriff was quickly overpowered. The mob got the man, marched him to the square and asked him if he and his mother were guilty. The answer was "pull your d-d rope." He was at once drawn up at the command "pull away boys" and in a few minutes Cullon was dead.

The crime was a heinous one. Four years ago a baby ten days old was found at his stepfather's door. Young Cullon thought it was meant for an heir by adoption. Last Monday night he tied a car link to the neck of the child and threw it into an unused well. His guilt is certain.

Pointer to Farmers.

BLAKELY, Minn., Feb. 29.—J. H.
 Johnson, the owner of a fifty-barrel flour mill here and a devotee of the Farmers' Alliance doctrines, has created a great deal of comment in this neighborhood by issuing a letter to the farmers urging them to organize Farmers' Alliance milling associations. He maintains that the farmers of the Dakotas and Minnesota have lost $28,000,000 on the wheat sold up to Dec. 8, 1891, of this year's crop. He then proceeds to show the farmers their folly in not building their own mills and thereby securing $1 a bushel for their wheat with a ton of feed per 100 bushels, together with some minor advantages. Any community that can deliver 75,000 bushels of wheat, he says, can thereby keep a fifty-barrel mill running for a year and the mill can be built for $700. This, Mr. Johnson says, will secure $1 a bushel for every bushel of wheat raised by the shareholders.

Chief Justice Fuller May Resign.

CHICAGO, Feb. 29.—A Washington special to the Daily Times says: Chief Justice Fuller of the supreme court is seriously contemplating a step unprecedented in the history of that court, the tendering of his resignation, and if a Democrat be elected president he will probably resign after inauguration. The reasons assigned are that he is yet comparatively a young man and does not care to go on the shelf, that the pay is inadequate to meet his living expenses and the work hard and trying, leaving him little leisure.

Colored Convict Shot.

HUTCHINS, Tex., Feb. 29.—Will Williams, a negro convict on the county farm, made a break for liberty. The farm physician picked out between Williams's shoulder and calf of leg about thirty No. 8 shot. The negro escaped from the farm some time ago, subsequently was jailed in Ellis county, escaped and voluntarily returned to the Dallas county farm to serve out his term. He says he has always been well fed and treated at the farm.

Gone mad—the person with bad blood who's not taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. You are bereft of judgment and good sense if you allow your blood to get out of order, your liver sluggish—life dull, everything blue, for you may soon find out that you're in the grave—or next to it—because you did not procure the G. M. D. soon enough, and some dread disease, may be influenza or consumption, may be typhoid or malarial fever, has taken you.

 Consumption is Lung Scrofula. For Scrofula in its myriad forms, and for all Liver, Blood and Lung diseases, the "Discovery" is an unequalled remedy. Everybody, now and then, feels "run-down" "played-out,"—with no power to generate vitality, in fact, just too sick to be well. That's where the right kind of medicine comes in, and the "Discovery" does for a dollar what the doctor wouldn't do for less than five or ten.

We claim that nothing like it has been discovered for a blood-purifier.
 It's guaranteed by the makers. Your money is returned if it doesn't benefit or cure you.

An Ordinance.

An Ordinance pertaining to Fire Escapes:

Be It Ordained by the City Council of the City of Waco.

Section I. That the owners or lessees of all hotels, boarding houses, tenement houses, factories and store houses over two stories high, and all theatres and opera houses, in the city of Waco, are hereby required to provide the same with good and suitable fire escapes amply sufficient to furnish means of safe egress to all inmates in case of fire.

Sec. II. Hereafter the city engineer shall issue no permits for buildings mentioned in section one of this ordinance unless such fire escapes are provided for in the plans and specifications. It is hereby made unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to hereafter erect any of said buildings in the city of Waco without providing the same with such fire escapes.

Sec. III. That any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than twenty-five (25) dollars or more than two hundred (200) dollars for each offense, and each day's refusal after due notice shall be given, shall be deemed a separate offense.

Sec. IV. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with any of the provisions of this ordinance shall and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. V. That this ordinance take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Passed February 4, 1892. Approved, Attest: C. C. McCULLOCH, Mayor.

JONEY JONES, City Secretary.

This is Pretty Good.

Mr. John C. Goodwin, carpenter of Danville, Ill., writes: "About two weeks ago a heavy saw log fell upon my foot very badly crushing it, so that I was unable to walk at all. I sent for a bottle of Ballard's Snow Linament and kept my foot well satisfied by it. It is now two weeks since this happened, and my foot is nearly well and I am at work. Had I not used Snow Linament I should have been laid up at least two months. For healing wounds, sprains, sores and bruises it has no equal. No inflammation can exist where Snow Linament is used. You can use this letter.
